TO: Mayor Chamberlain and City Council
FROM: Chief Shane Woody
DATE: December 23, 2019
RE: Motion to Accept Donation from Heidi Abrammat

The Belvidere Police Department has received a donation in the amount of $5,000.00 from Heidi Abrammat for the Belvidere Police Department.

The Belvidere Police Department would like to use the donation for the secure storage of our less lethal shotguns, patrol rifles and Tasers. Currently, we are using an old metal supply cabinet with a lock that doesn't work for the storage of the Tasers and accessories and a metal sporting goods Stack-on gun safe that only holds six shotguns and very little ammunition.

Attached are two photos of the storage cabinet and gun safe we are considering for purchase. The Durham Heavy Duty Work Cabinet would provide secure storage for our Tasers, batteries, cameras and additional patrol equipment. The cost for this cabinet, with shipping, is $1,600.00. The Secure It Gun Storage Cabinet would secure our less lethal shotguns, patrol rifles and countless rounds of ammunition which would allow our patrol officers quick and easy access to their equipment while preparing for duty. The digital lock eliminates the need for keys. The cost for this cabinet, with shipping, is $2,445.00.

The Department would use the remaining $955.00 for a cabinet for the storage and organization of the patrol shields and other patrol equipment.

Motion: To accept the donation of $5,000.00 from Heidi Abrammat for the Durham Heavy Duty Work Cabinet, the Secure It Gun Storage Cabinet and cabinet for the storage of other patrol equipment.
